Section 1194.21 Software Applications and Operating Systems

Criteria	Supporting Features	Remarks and explanations
(a) When software is designed to run on a system that has a keyboard, product functions shall be executable from a keyboard where the function itself or the result of performing a function can be discerned textually.

| Criteria	Supporting Features	Remarks and explanations
(e) When bitmap images are used to identify controls, status indicators, or other programmatic elements, the meaning assigned to those images shall be consistent throughout an application's performance.	Not Applicable	Bitmap images are not used to identify controls, status indicators or other programmatic elements.
(f) Textual information shall be provided through operating system functions for displaying text. The minimum information that shall be made available is text content, text input caret location, and text attributes.	Not applicable	The Qualtrics Survey is not a software application that interacts with an operating system.
(g) Applications shall not override user selected contrast and color selections and other individual display attributes.	Supports	The Qualtrics Survey honors user-selected display attributes, such as high contrast. Custom stylesheets can be used to alter both text and colors on the website. Text can be resized using both browser zoom and text resize functions.
(h) When animation is displayed, the information shall be displayable in at least one non-animated presentation mode at the option of the user.	Not applicable	The Qualtrics Survey does not use animation to convey information.
(i) Color coding shall not be used as the only means of conveying information, indicating an action, prompting a response, or distinguishing a visual element.	Supports	The Qualtrics Survey does not rely on color coding alone to convey information. All actions and visual elements are distinguishable without color Ð links are underlined and the progress indicator is also available in text.
(j) When a product permits a user to adjust color and contrast settings, a variety of color selections capable of producing a range of contrast levels shall be provided.	Not applicable	The Qualtrics Survey does not have color or contrast adjustment settings.
